What is one area of your life where you would like something greater?
What would that greater look like?

Read Mark 10:35-45 and then read Mark 10:46-52

What are the differences between the disciples answer to the question, "What do you want me to do for you?" and Blind Bartimaeus?

How do you think their circumstances impact their answer?

David E. Garland in his commentary on the book of Mark had this to say about Jesus question. "What do you want me to do for you?" is the most important question God ever asks us, and the one to which we most frequently give the wrong answer."

Why do you think we tend to get the answer to this question wrong so often?

Can you think of a time in your life when you got the answer to this question wrong? What factors or circumstances impacted your wrong choice?

Read: James 4:1-3

What does this scripture seem to say about why we might get the answer to this question wrong?
