Can you think of a time in your life where some moment, conversation or specific action marked you in a significant way?
How or why did the moment mark you so significantly?

Can you think of a time in your life when God marked you in a special way, a way that at the time was painful or unwelcome?
How did God's mark on your life impact you?

Read: Hebrews 12:1-3

Outline the steps in order that we are called to follow before we "run with perseverance."

What do you think the significance of the order is?

Is there stuff that you need to "throw off" in your life right now or desires you need to ask God to "cut out"?

How have (or will) these things if not removed hinder you from getting to Greater or turning Greater to Bad eventually?

Read: Matthew 6:19-24 and Mark 8:34-37

Both of these verses seem to point to the idea that there is nothing that is quite as important as Jesus (His presence) in our lives. In what ways can the temptation of GREATER success, finances, relationships become more important to us than a GREATER relationship with Jesus?

In what ways do we forfeit our soul at times in our pursuit of greater?

What can you do to protect from anything in your life becoming greater than your relationship (connection) with Jesus?

"God's more interested in Greater in you than Greater for you." A statement like this focuses on the long view of things rather than the temporary. In what ways does the temporary steal our focus from the eternal?
