

FAQs

Am I qualified to be a mentor?

Are you a Christ Follower who is devoted to growing in your relationship with God? If so, then you're qualified!

How often do we meet?

Please try to meet twice a month.

Where can we meet?

Choose a space that is conducive to learning and growth. It could be at a coffee house, at a park, in your home... your choices are limitless.

Will I have 'homework'?

No. If you want to read through a book together, or study the Bible together, that is great...however, find what works best for the two of you.

What are my responsibilities?

There will be a training session before you begin. Then throughout the year both mentor and mentee will be emailed regularly to follow up with you so the mentoring directors can best support you. Other than that, we ask you to love and pray for and encourage your mentee as they navigate life.

Mentoring at Berkley

Mentoring at Berkley is an one-on-one mentoring relationship ministry for college aged students.

We believe that Jesus is the greatest teacher in the art of conversation. One scholar estimated Jesus spent thirteen months of His three year ministry just walking from place to place...all the while asking questions and engaging people in conversation. While talking with people, Jesus brought His Father's message of love, hope, and salvation to His children.

In your yearlong commitment to meet together, we hope both you and your partner will enrich each other with greater understanding of daily life. God's Word, prayer and encouragement will help you both as you strive to Know Jesus and Be Jesus.

“Do all the good you can,
By all the means you can,
In all the ways you can,
In all the places you can,
To all the people you can,
As long as ever you can.”
